Arrests and Accidents Mark First Day of Hunting Season

The man, Ray Mitchell, Theodore Manos and John C. Honduras, pleaded guilty when arraigned before Justice of the Peace B. F. Retterer at Prospect and were fined $25 each. All three paid their fines and were released.

Niemeyer reported that non-resident hunters were having considerable trouble yesterday in finding non-resident hunter licenses. However, he said, a supply has been obtained by the Luke hardware store on West Center street.

Students Afraid

Among the hundreds of Marion county men and women who were in the field at 11 a. m. yesterday as the season officially got under way were between 80 and 90 Harding High school youths who were excused from their regular class work in order to take part in the opening day festivities. Principal Albert C. May said today. The youths were required to attend the first assembly immediately after school took up yesterday morning and were excused about 10 o'clock.

Durward Burns, 19-year-old Mansfield youth, was given little chance to recover from bullet wounds in the head suffered in the Marion area's first serious hunting accident of the season. He was wounded on a farm between Wharton and Upper Sandusky.

Members of the hunting party told Kenton hospital officials that a gun in the hands of L. A. McIntire of Mansfield accidentally discharged while McIntire was reloading it a few seconds after downing a pheasant.

BRITISH RELEASE BLACKSHIRT LEADER

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Nov. 20.—Sir Oswald Mosley, pre-war leader of British fascists, was released from internment today despite protests of British labor groups.

The former blackshirt leader, who had been interned for three and a half years, left Holloway prison with his wife who had been interned with him.

The home office said there would be no statement until Heribert Morrison, home security minister, makes his promised "full explanation" when parliament reconvenes.

The government had announced the decision to free the Mosley resulted from his failing health.

Their freedom was believed to have been tempered by tight restrictions which presumably included a ban against any fresh political activities.

Antagonism toward Mosley's release did not appear to be diminished by a later authoritative statement the detention order had only been suspended—not revoked—thereby leaving the way open for the government to change its decision if it chooses.

Premium Put on June Brides, and Spring Babies

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Congressional tax authorities discovered today the house ways and means committee, in effect, has put a premium on June brides and spring babies.

The tax-drafting body wrote into the new wartime revenue bill a provision that beginning next year "for the purpose of the personal exemption and credit for dependents, the status of the taxpayer shall be determined as of July 1 of the taxable year."

This means a man married on July 2 or thereafter would get an exemption of a single person for that year—$300—but if wed before July 1 he would have a married man's exemption of $1,200. Similarly, there would be no dependency credit on the current tax year for a new baby unless born before July 1.

Speaks in Columbus

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 20.—Col. Oveta Culp Hobby, director of the women's army corps, suggests American women should realize in measuring their war contributions that Axis women too, are aiding the enemy's war effort.

Addressing the 30th annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, Colonel Hobby said last night the nation's women might ask themselves "Have I an opposite number in Berlin and Tokyo?"

GERMAN U-BOATS STILL NOT LIKED

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The German still may have some tricks up their sleeves in U-boat warfare, even though their fight is desperate and doomed.

Among naval experts here it is some belief that in the month ahead the Nazis may attempt to expand their undersea offensive from the Atlantic into the Indian ocean and perhaps the Pacific. It may be that in cooperation with the Japanese, they already have prepared bases for such operations.

This would amount to a major change in enemy submarine warfare and would call for consequent changes in strategy by allied forces defending global supply lines. Until the defensive strategy was perfected the Germans might hold a temporary advantage and sent upward the curve of allied ship sinkings which for months has been extremely low.

The aim would be, of course, to force dispersal of the allied forces which have crushed the U-boats in the Atlantic.

The Germans, in the last few months, have been losing submarines at the rate of 30 a month—faster than they are believed to be able to build them.

Rear Admiral Francis Low, chief of staff for the tenth fleet, American anti-submarine force said yesterday, however, Germany still has "great many submarines left and they have a good deal of potential power."

ALLIED ARMIES GAIN GROUND AGAINST NAZIS

Fifth and Eighth Forces Battle

Rain, Mud To Score
Advances.

By The Associated Press

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS ALGIERS, Nov. 20.—Despite mud and fierce enemy opposition, both the allied Fifth and Eighth armies have gained ground at several points on the Hitler front in the last 24 hours and the British have advanced five miles to capture Perano in the Sangro river valley.

Allied headquarters announced units of Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's Eighth army had taken the little town on the east side of the flooded river, about a mile and a half northeast of Archi and the point of origin for recent enemy counterattacks in the area about 13 miles inland from the Adriatic.

Near the mouth of the Sangro Eighth army patrols crossed the river and inflicted numerous casualties on the Nazis in several clashes.

Farther south near Rionero there were other clashes between Eighth army patrols and the Germans and the announcement said these also produced many Nazi casualties.

German Bases Threatened

Occupation of Perano threatened German concentrations both in the northern part of their line above Archi and at Bomba, four miles farther up the river.

IN MEMORY

*Of Richard David Key who passed away one year ago today, Nov. 20, 1942.

He has solved it, life's wonderful problem. The deepest, the strangest, the last, And into the school of the angels With the answer forever has passed.

How strange he should sleep so profoundly. So young, so unworldly by the strife. While beside him brimful of hope's nectar. Unouched stood the Goblet of life.

God knew all about it, how noble, How gentle he was and how brave. How bright his possible future. Yet put him to sleep in his grave. God knew all about those who love him.

How bitter the trial must be, And right through it all God is living. And knows so much better than we.

*Of Mrs. Elizabeth Waggy who passed away one year ago today, Nov. 20, 1942.

A precious one from us has gone. The voice we loved is still. A place is vacant in our home which never can be filled. Safe in the arms of Jesus Safe in his loving care. Lives our darling Mother. The one we hope to meet up there.

Dowler spent $77.09 in wages of education, and Township, working a successful campaign, as Mr. Reeder, Tobin, Townsend, Republican candidate for mayor in Marion, Indiana, and his expense report on file in the Marion office of W. Mysterious Explosion Rocks London District

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Nov. 20.—A mysterious explosion—London's third in a week—which smashed a five-story building in the Soho district last night was followed today by an equally mysterious claim in the German communie that Nazi planes had bombed the British capital, although no

planes or sirens were heard here.

Lack of official explanation of the blast aroused suspicions that one of Germany's long-promised secret weapons might have been brought into play, but such theories found no confirmation.

The ministry of home security said it was convinced the explosion was not due to enemy action.

Unofficially, all three blasts have been attributed to faulty gas mais.

Ohio Hunters Find Game Plentiful

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 20.—Ohio numbers found game plentiful on the first day of the hunting season and hundreds got big limits of rabbit and pheasant, state conservation division spokesmen said today.

Two fatalities were reported,

both caused by heart attacks,

while a number of hunters suffered gun wounds accidentally.

W. B. Dennis, 43, of Wauseon, and Louis M. Clifford, 64, of Akron, president of the Home

Insurance Co., were the victims of heart ailments.

Dennis died after shooting his first pheasant. Clifford was stricken near Poston.

The wounded included Sheldon

Lank of New Carlisle, J.

F. Schmalzbach of East Liverpool, and Richard Dunn of Findlay. All were treated at Findlay hospital.

John was wounded in the eye and chest. Schmalzbach and Dunn were struck in the leg. Herman Coe, 33, of Columbus, was gun he was cleaning discharged in his home.

Carlene was notified by her husband and her mother of seven children.

A third man was wanted for non-support and neglect and violation of an agreement.

Prosecutor said the girl reluctantly remained with both parents in a locomotive house and that Rosen had been divorced. She had obtained work in a factory.

And the girl told him
she planned to spend the Thanksgiving in Lima. He added that they had been drinking and told me her husband was going to shave. But she said she replied,
"You or you'll cut your hair queerly at me, pick a razor blade and cut his throat, and I ran out screaming for help," Barbour quoted her.

The prosecutor said the Allen county prosecutor learned that Rosen's wife there received a letter from him a week ago begging her not to disclose his whereabouts, telling her he was staying in Lima but concluding, "I'll never come home alive."

JULIE BISHOP AND ERROL FLYNN (above) are starred in "Northern Pursuit," the film now showing at the Ohio.

Bishop-Flynn Film at Ohio

"Northern Pursuit" is Story of Nazi Spy Group in Canadian Wilds.

At the Ohio now through Wednesday is "Northern Pursuit," featuring Julie Bishop and Errol Flynn.

The far north of the Canadian wilderness almost annihilates a group of Nazis sent to this country on a sabotage mission.
The cold is almost unbearable. A snowbound trail is one of the parts while they are trying to make their way inland, and so on until only one member of the group, Colonel Von Keller, survives. Eventually he falls into the hands of the mounties and is placed in a concentration camp from which he escapes. The chase comes when the chase ends in an abandoned mine where an airplane is stored that would help complete the enemy mission. This is destroyed, letting the spies plans down flat.

Starting Thanksgiving and playing through Saturday will be "The Dancing Masters," with the perennial favorites, Laurel and Hardy.

The film finds the two as owners of a dancing studio. When their star pupil, Trudy Marshall, appeals to them for help in getting her boy friend accepted by her adamantine parents, the boys go to her rescue, involving themselves in a set of sequences including a house party, a demonstration of a new flame thrower, and Hardy's desperate attempt to involve Laurel in an accident so he can collect the insurance.
